

N. C. METHODISTS IN SALISBURY TO-DAY

Members of the Denomination
Gathering in Large Numbers for Annual Meeting.

BISHOP MORRISON TO PRESIDE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., November 12.—
Everything is ready for the opening of the eighteenth session of the Western North Carolina Conference in the First Methodist Church in Salisbury to-morrow at 9 A. M. Bishop H. C.
Morrison, of Birmingham, who will preside at the conference, arrived in Salisbury to-night and is the guest of Senator Lee S. Overman, and many other ministers are arriving on every train.

By Wednesday morning more than 300 preachers and lay delegates will be in the city, all of whom will be royally entertained this week.

The conference will devote the forenoon of each day to the calling of questions, hearing reports and the transaction of routine business.

The Epworth League board will hold its anniversary Wednesday night. Dr.
H. M. DuBose, of Nashville, is expected to speak.

On Thursday night the board of education will meet. When Bishop James Atkins will address the conference.

Friday morning the laymen's movement, which is a new feature of the work of the Southern church, will be discussed in open conference. The object of the movement is the promulgation of the mission work of the church in foreign fields.

Friday night the board of missions will meet and addresses will be made by Rev. Ed. F. Cooke, secretary of the board, and Bishop Morrison.

Saturday night the church extension board will hold its anniversary, and Dr. W. C. McHenry, of Louisville, will speak.

Next Sunday a love feast will be held in the forenoon and a memorial for the deceased members of the conference in the afternoon. Bishop Morrison will preach and ordain a class of deacons at 11 A. M. and a class of elders will be ordained Sunday night.

Monday the conference will hear special reports, and it is expected that the annual appointment will be read by Bishop Morrison late in the day.
There will be many changes this year.

The conference embraces 217 pastorals, 2,000 churches, 100,000 members.
Churches in North Carolina are each supporting a missionary in foreign fields, these being at Spencer, Winston, High Point, Monrovia, Gastonia, Cornelius and Morganton.

There will be many prominent visitors in attendance upon the conference.

THE NEWS OF RALEIGH.

Editor Johnson Honored—Death of Mr.
Bretch—Cadet Injured.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., November 12.—

Editor Norman H. Johnson, of the Merchants' Journal, and general counsel for the North Carolina Merchants' Association, has been notified of his election as a member of the Merchants' and Travelers' Association of Philadelphia.

There is deep regret here at the death of Chas. M. Bretch, a valued German citizen, who has for many years conducted the principal bakery here. He died last night, after an illness of several months, from a complicated heart affection. Mr.
Bretch was fifty-five years old, and was twice married. His second wife and two sons by the first marriage and two daughters by the second marriage survive him.

Mr. Bretch is gratified here that the North Carolina State School for the Blind has won at the Jamestown Exposition the diploma and gold medal for exhibiting the best work in the peripatetic class. Mr. E. Ray is receiving the congratulatory of State officers and others. The exhibit represented the work of the students of the school and embraced a wide scope of effort.

Cadet J. D. Elliott, of the A. & M.
College, who was struck by a street car late Saturday night, and narrowly escaped death under the wheels, was reported to-day doing very nicely. It develops that no bones were broken, nor were there any internal injuries.

SIX PARDONS GRANTED.

Governor Glenn Extends Clemency.
Charters Granted, Tobacco Sales.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., November 12.—

Governor Glenn made final disposition of twelve applications for pardons, granting six pardons and declining to pardon six other convicts now serving terms in the penitentiary.

The pardons are to William Raper, serving a fifteen-year sentence from February 1, 1898, for attempted assault, pardoned because there is doubt of his intent to commit wrong; he having been drunk at the time; John Henry Mills, sentenced last June to two years for selling liquor in Hall-fax county, pardoned because the prisoner was not the principal in the selling, but only a waiter obeying the order of his employer; John Hatcher, convicted last May in Gaston County Court of larceny, sentenced to eight months, and pardoned on account of age and earnest appeals of people from his section; W. E. Burritt, serving two years from Vance, for betrayal, pardoned because of a serious doubt of the guilt of the prisoner, so far as his section is concerned; and H. S.
Blanton, serving four months in New Hanover county, for assault, commuted to fine of $100, because of the ill health of the prisoner, Tobias Hendy, serving twelve months for assault with deadly weapon in Wilkes, pardoned at the request of the judge.

Special Tax for Schools.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROCKINGHAM, N. C., November 12.—

Prospect District, Beaver Dam Township, Rockingham county, N. C., has just voted a special tax of 30 cents on the hundred dollars for school purposes.
This is the second district in that township that has voted a special school tax this fall.

Mrs. Ruffy Dies Suddenly.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., November 12.—

Mrs. Wilton C. Ruffy died suddenly at her home here early this morning. She was in apparent health yesterday, but was stricken during last night. She was fifty-one years old, and leaves a husband and two sons—E. R. Ruffy, of Salisbury, and H. E. Ruffy, of Richmond.

Our Raincoats

are really two garments in one—a useful Mackintosh for a rainy day and a swaggy Overcoat when the weather's clear. Unquestioned quality and lowest price. We're offering a nice selection in a diversity of fabrics from 10 per cent. to 20 per cent. lower than you can buy similar qualities elsewhere.

$10 to $25

who says four months is long enough.
Charters are issued for the Hanover Manufacturing Company, of Concord, capital $15,000, authorized and $2,500 subscribed, to operate yarn mills; incorporators L. W. Brander, W.
M. Greenwood and others.

The McMillan Granite Company, of Winston-Salem, capital $25,000, by L.
McMillan and others.

The McMillan Granite Company, of
Winston-Salem, capital $25,000, by L.
McMillan and others.

The Modern Idea Shop Tyler's

Members of the Denomination
Gathering in Large Numbers
for Annual Meeting.

BISHOP MORRISON TO PRESIDE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., November 12.—
Everything is ready for the opening of the eighteenth session of the Western North Carolina Conference in the First Methodist Church in Salisbury
to-morrow at 9 A. M. Bishop H. C.
Morrison, of Birmingham, who will preside at the conference, arrived in Salisbury to-night and is the guest
of Senator Lee S. Overman, and many other ministers are arriving on every
train.

By Wednesday morning more than 300 preachers and lay delegates will
be in the city, all of whom will be royally entertained this week.

The conference will devote the forenoon of each day to the calling of
questions, hearing reports and the transaction of routine business.

The Epworth League board will hold
its anniversary Wednesday night. Dr.
H. M. DuBose, of Nashville, is expected
to speak.

On Thursday night the board of education will meet. When Bishop James Atkins will address the conference.

Friday morning the laymen's movement, which is a new feature of the work of the Southern church, will be discussed in open conference. The object of the movement is the promulgation of the mission work of the church
in foreign fields.

Friday night the board of missions
will meet and addresses will be made by Rev. Ed. F. Cooke, secretary of the board, and Bishop Morrison.

Saturday night the church extension
board will hold its anniversary, and
Dr. W. C. McHenry, of Louisville, will
speak.

Next Sunday a love feast will be held in the forenoon and a memorial
for the deceased members of the conference in the afternoon. Bishop Morrison will preach and ordain a class of deacons at 11 A. M. and a class of elders will be ordained Sunday
night.

Monday the conference will hear
special reports, and it is expected that
the annual appointment will be read
by Bishop Morrison late in the day.
There will be many changes this year.

The conference embraces 217 pasto-
rals, 2,000 churches, 100,000 members.
Churches in North Carolina are each
supporting a missionary in foreign
fields, these being at Spencer, Winston,
High Point, Monrovia, Gastonia, Corn-
elius and Morganton.

There will be many prominent visitors in attendance upon the conference.

THE NEWS OF RALEIGH.

Editor Johnson Honored—Death of Mr.
Bretch—Cadet Injured.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., November 12.—

Editor Norman H. Johnson, of the Merchants' Journal, and general counsel
for the North Carolina Merchants' Association, has been notified of his
election as a member of the Merchants' and Travelers' Association of Philadelphia.

There is deep regret here at the death of Chas. M. Bretch, a valued German citizen, who has for many years conducted the principal bakery
here. He died last night, after an illness of several months, from a complicated heart affection. Mr.
Bretch was fifty-five years old, and
was twice married. His second wife
and two sons by the first marriage and
two daughters by the second marriage
survive him.

Mr. Bretch is gratified here that the North Carolina State School for the Blind has won at the Jamestown Exposition the diploma and gold medal
for exhibiting the best work in the
peripatetic class. Mr. E. Ray is receiving
the congratulatory of State officers
and others. The exhibit represented
the work of the students of the school
and embraced a wide scope of effort.

Cadet J. D. Elliott, of the A. & M.
College, who was struck by a street
car late Saturday night, and narrowly
escaped death under the wheels, was reported to-day doing very nicely. It
develops that no bones were broken, nor were there any internal injuries.

SIX PARDONS GRANTED.

Governor Glenn Extends Clemency.
Charters Granted, Tobacco Sales.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., November 12.—

Governor Glenn made final disposition
of twelve applications for pardons,
granting six pardons and declining to pardon six other convicts now serving
terms in the penitentiary.

The pardons are to William Raper, serving a fifteen-year sentence from February 1, 1898, for attempted assault, pardoned because there is doubt
of his intent to commit wrong; he
having been drunk at the time; John Henry Mills, sentenced last June to
two years for selling liquor in Hall-
fax county, pardoned because the prisoner was not the principal in the
selling, but only a waiter obeying the
order of his employer; John Hatcher,
convicted last May in Gaston County Court of larceny, sentenced to eight months, and pardoned on account of
age and earnest appeals of people
from his section; W. E. Burritt, serving two years from Vance, for betrayal,
pardoned because of a serious doubt
of the guilt of the prisoner, so far as
his section is concerned; and H. S.
Blanton, serving four months in New Hanover county, for assault, com-
muted to fine of $100, because of the
ill health of the prisoner, Tobias Hendy, serving twelve months for assault with deadly weapon in Wilkes,
pardoned at the request of the judge.

Special Tax for Schools.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROCKINGHAM, N. C., November 12.—

Prospect District, Beaver Dam Township, Rockingham county, N. C., has just voted a special tax of 30 cents on the hundred dollars for school purposes.
This is the second district in that
township that has voted a special
school tax this fall.

Mrs. Ruffy Dies Suddenly.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., November 12.—

Mrs. Wilton C. Ruffy died suddenly at her home here early this morning. She
was in apparent health yesterday, but
was stricken during last night. She
was fifty-one years old, and leaves a
husband and two sons—E. R. Ruffy, of Salisbury, and H. E. Ruffy, of Richmond.

Our Raincoats

are really two garments in one—
a useful Mackintosh for a rainy
day and a swaggy Overcoat when
the weather's clear. Un-
questioned quality and lowest
price. We're offering a nice selection
in a diversity of fabrics from 10 per cent. to 20 per cent. lower
than you can buy similar qualities
elsewhere.

$10 to $25

who says four months is long enough.
Charters are issued for the Han-
over Manufacturing Company, of Concord, capital $15,000, authorized and $2,500 subscribed, to operate yarn
mills; incorporators L. W. Brander, W.
M. Greenwood and others.

The McMillan Granite Company, of
Winston-Salem, capital $25,000, by L.
McMillan and others.

The McMillan Granite Company, of
Winston-Salem, capital $25,000, by L.
McMillan and others.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Members of the Denomination
Gathering in Large Numbers
for Annual Meeting.

BISHOP MORRISON TO PRESIDE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., November 12.—
Everything is ready for the opening of the eighteenth session of the Western North Carolina Conference in the First Methodist Church in Salisbury
to-morrow at 9 A. M. Bishop H. C.
Morrison, of Birmingham, who will preside at the conference, arrived in Salisbury to-night and is the guest
of Senator Lee S. Overman, and many other ministers are arriving on every
train.

By Wednesday morning more than 300 preachers and lay delegates will
be in the city, all of whom will be royally entertained this week.

The conference will devote the forenoon of each day to the calling of
questions, hearing reports and the transaction of routine business.

The Epworth League board will hold
its anniversary Wednesday night. Dr.
H. M. DuBose, of Nashville, is expected
to speak.

On Thursday night the board of education will meet. When Bishop James Atkins will address the conference.

Friday morning the laymen's movement, which is a new feature of the work of the Southern church, will be discussed in open conference. The object of the movement is the promulgation of the mission work of the church
in foreign fields.

Friday night the board of missions
will meet and addresses will be made
by Rev. Ed. F. Cooke, secretary of the board, and Bishop Morrison.

Saturday night the church extension
board will hold its anniversary, and
Dr. W. C. McHenry, of Louisville, will
speak.

Next Sunday a love feast will be held in the forenoon and a memorial
for the deceased members of the conference in the afternoon. Bishop Morrison will preach and ordain a class of deacons at 11 A. M. and a class of elders will be ordained Sunday
night.

Monday the conference will hear
special reports, and it is expected that
the annual appointment will be read
by Bishop Morrison late in the day.
There will be many changes this year.

The conference embraces 217 pasto-
rals, 2,000 churches, 100,000 members.
Churches in North Carolina are each
supporting a missionary in foreign
fields, these being at Spencer, Winston,
High Point, Monrovia, Gastonia, Corn-
elius and Morganton.

There will be many prominent visitors in attendance upon the conference.

THE NEWS OF RALEIGH.

Editor Johnson Honored—Death of Mr.
Bretch—Cadet Injured.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., November 12.—

Editor Norman H. Johnson, of the Merchants' Journal, and general counsel
for the North Carolina Merchants' Association, has been notified of his
election as a member of the Merchants' and Travelers' Association of Philadelphia.

There is deep regret here at the death of Chas. M. Bretch, a valued German citizen, who has for many years conducted the principal bakery
here. He died last night, after an illness of several months, from a complicated heart affection. Mr.
Bretch was fifty-five years old, and
was twice married. His second wife
and two sons by the first marriage and
two daughters by the second marriage
survive him.

Mr. Bretch is gratified here that the North Carolina State School for the Blind has won at the Jamestown Exposition the diploma and gold medal
for exhibiting the best work in the
peripatetic class. Mr. E. Ray is receiving
the congratulatory of State officers
and others. The exhibit represented
the work of the students of the school
and embraced a wide scope of effort.

Cadet J. D. Elliott, of the A. & M.
College, who was struck by a street
car late Saturday night, and narrowly
escaped death under the wheels, was reported to-day doing very nicely. It
develops that no bones were broken, nor were there any internal injuries.

SIX PARDONS GRANTED.

Governor Glenn Extends Clemency.
Charters Granted, Tobacco Sales.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., November 12.—

Governor Glenn made final disposition
of twelve applications for pardons,
granting six pardons and declining to pardon six other convicts now serving
terms in the penitentiary.

The pardons are to William Raper, serving a fifteen-year sentence from February 1, 1898, for attempted assault, pardoned because there is doubt
of his intent to commit wrong; he
having been drunk at the time; John Henry Mills, sentenced last June to
two years for selling liquor in Hall-
fax county, pardoned because the prisoner was not the principal in the
selling, but only a waiter obeying the
order of his employer; John Hatcher,
convicted last May in Gaston County Court of larceny, sentenced to eight months, and pardoned on account of
age and earnest appeals of people
from his section; W. E. Burritt, serving two years from Vance, for betrayal,
pardoned because of a serious doubt
of the guilt of the prisoner, so far as
his section is concerned; and H. S.
Blanton, serving four months in New Hanover county, for assault, com-
muted to fine of $100, because of the
ill health of the prisoner, Tobias Hendy, serving twelve months for assault with deadly weapon in Wilkes,
pardoned at the request of the judge.

Special Tax for Schools.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROCKINGHAM, N. C., November 12.—

Prospect District, Beaver Dam Township, Rockingham county, N. C., has just voted a special tax of 30 cents on
the hundred dollars for school purposes.
This is the second district in that
township that has voted a special
school tax this fall.

Mrs. Ruffy Dies Suddenly.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., November 12.—

Mrs. Wilton C. Ruffy died suddenly at her home here early this morning. She
was in apparent health yesterday, but
was stricken during last night. She
was fifty-one years old, and leaves a
husband and two sons—E. R. Ruffy, of Salisbury, and H. E. Ruffy, of Richmond.

Our Raincoats

are really two garments in one—
a useful Mackintosh for a rainy
day and a swaggy Overcoat when
the weather's clear. Un-
questioned quality and lowest
price. We're offering a nice selection
in a diversity of fabrics from 10 per cent. to 20 per cent. lower
than you can buy similar qualities
elsewhere.

$10 to $25

who says four months is long enough.
Charters are issued for the Han-
over Manufacturing Company, of Concord, capital $15,000, authorized and $2,500 subscribed, to operate yarn
mills; incorporators L. W. Brander, W.
M. Greenwood and others.

The McMillan Granite Company, of
Winston-Salem, capital $25,000, by L.
McMillan and others.

The McMillan Granite Company, of
Winston-Salem, capital $25,000, by L.
McMillan and others.

Cluett SHIRTS

Members of the Denomination
Gathering in Large Numbers
for Annual Meeting.

BISHOP MORRISON TO PRESIDE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALISBURY, N. C., November 12.—
Everything is ready for the opening of the eighteenth session of the Western North Carolina Conference in the First Methodist Church in Salisbury
to-morrow at 9 A. M. Bishop H. C.
Morrison, of Birmingham, who will preside at the conference, arrived in Salisbury to-night and is the guest
of Senator Lee S. Overman, and many other ministers are arriving on every
train.

By Wednesday morning more than 300 preachers and lay delegates will
be in the city, all of whom will be royally entertained this week.

The conference will devote the forenoon of each day to the calling of
questions, hearing reports and the transaction of routine business.

The Epworth League board will hold
its anniversary Wednesday night. Dr.
H. M. DuBose, of Nashville, is expected
to speak.

On Thursday night the board of education will meet. When Bishop James Atkins will address the conference.

Friday morning the laymen's movement, which is a new feature of the work of the Southern church, will be discussed in open conference. The object of the movement is the promulgation of the mission work of the church
in foreign fields.

Friday night the board of missions
will meet and addresses will be made
by Rev. Ed. F. Cooke, secretary of the board, and Bishop Morrison.

Saturday night the church extension
board will hold its anniversary, and
Dr. W. C. McHenry, of Louisville, will
speak.

Next Sunday a love feast will be held in the forenoon and a memorial
for the deceased members of the conference in the afternoon. Bishop Morrison will preach and ordain a class of deacons at 11 A. M. and a class of elders will be ordained Sunday
night.

Monday the conference will hear
special reports, and it is expected that
the annual appointment will be read
by Bishop Morrison late in the day.
There will be many changes this year.

The conference embraces 217 pasto-
rals, 2,000 churches, 100,000 members.
Churches in North Carolina are each
supporting a missionary in foreign
fields, these being at Spencer, Winston,
High Point, Monrovia, Gastonia, Corn-
elius and Morganton.

There will be many prominent visitors in attendance upon the conference.

THE NEWS OF RALEIGH.

Editor Johnson Honored—Death of Mr.
Bretch—Cadet Injured.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., November 12.—

Editor Norman H. Johnson, of the Merchants' Journal, and general counsel
for the North Carolina Merchants' Association, has been notified of his
election as a member of the Merchants' and Travelers' Association of Philadelphia.

There is deep regret here at the death of Chas. M. Bretch, a valued German citizen, who has for many years conducted the principal bakery
here. He died last night, after an illness of several months, from a complicated heart affection. Mr.
Bretch was fifty-five years old, and
was twice married. His second wife
and two sons by the first marriage and
two daughters by the second marriage
survive him.

Mr. Bretch is gratified here that the North Carolina State School for the Blind has won at the Jamestown Exposition the diploma and gold medal
for exhibiting the best work in the
peripatetic class. Mr. E. Ray is receiving
the congratulatory of State officers
and others. The exhibit represented
the work of the students of the school
and embraced a wide scope of effort.

Cadet J. D. Elliott, of the A. & M.
College, who was struck by a street
car late Saturday night, and narrowly
escaped death under the wheels, was reported to-day doing very nicely. It
develops that no bones were broken, nor were there any internal injuries.

SIX PARDONS GRANTED.

Governor Glenn Extends Clemency.
Charters Granted, Tobacco Sales.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., November 12.—

Governor Glenn made final disposition
of twelve applications for pardons,
granting six pardons and declining to pardon six other convicts now serving
terms in the penitentiary.

The pardons are to William Raper, serving a fifteen-year sentence from February 1, 1898, for attempted assault, pardoned because there is doubt
of his intent to commit wrong; he
having been drunk at the time; John Henry Mills, sentenced last June to two years for selling liquor in Hall